DETAILED ACTION

In light of adding a new 101 rejection to the claims, the finality is hereby withdrawn, and a new non final office action is provided below. The after final amendment filed 3/29/2010 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 48, 49, and 51-56 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 48, 49, and 51-56 recite the limitations of a "computer-readable medium". The specification is silent regarding any specific definition of what is meant by computer readable medium, and therefore this term can be considered to cover both statutory subject matter and non statutory subject matter (i.e. such as signal mediums). The USPTO Official Gazette from week #8 of 2010 (Feb 23, 2010), Volume 1351 page 212 specifically explains that in this circumstance, the addition of the term "non-transitory" before the computer readable medium will alleviate any issues with 35 USC 101 rejections, since the claims would no longer cover non statutory subject matter. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-13, 15-30, 32-47, 57, 58, 60-66 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Art Unit: 2617
